Description

Let's start by defining what a portfolio website is. At its most basic form, a portfolio website provides professional information about an individual or a company and presents a showcase of their work. ... To supply site visitors with information about the individual or company. To showcase work

The screenshot shows a professional portfolio website. At the top, there is a dark header bar with a small logo and a search bar. Below the header, a large, bold title 'I AM A DESIGNER' is displayed in a light green font. The main content area is divided into several sections. On the left, there is a sidebar with a 'Portfolio' section containing a list of items: 'My Portfolio', 'My Work', 'My Services', 'My Testimonials', 'My Contact', and 'My About'. The main content area has three columns. The first column contains a large image of a person's face and the text 'My Portfolio'. The second column contains a large image of a person's face and the text 'My Work'. The third column contains a large image of a person's face and the text 'My Services'. Each column has a sub-section with a list of items: 'My Portfolio', 'My Work', 'My Services', 'My Testimonials', 'My Contact', and 'My About'. The footer is a dark bar with a 'Footer' section containing a list of items: 'My Portfolio', 'My Work', 'My Services', 'My Testimonials', 'My Contact', and 'My About'.
